

NATURE AND ME by Lana Wheeler

If I were a tree
I'd look out and see
A tiny bee standing next to me
The bee was called Buzzy
He looked quite fuzzy
He hopped like a bunny
From flower to flower
That was his super power

Just then I saw a squirrel
Searching for dinner
She looked quite hungry
I hope she'll be a winner

Birds build their nests
I do like them the best

I've just made friends with a cockatoo
None of the birds ever say
BOO!
(but all the children do)

When night falls
And the owl Twit t woos
I wake up and see
I'm no longer a tree

Maybe next time
I'll imagine and be
A seed, a weed or even a pond reed!
